Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..."

Isaiah 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

You have to give it to John the Baptist, he's a man who thinks big! When he sees Jesus in today's gospel, he says, "Behold, the Lamb of God." John is using an image from Jewish practice, the lamb serves to reconcile people to God. It is when John describes the mission of this lamb that John's thinking is expansive. Jesus is the lamb who takes away the sin of the world, not the sin just of Israel, the sin of the entire world. John's acclamation is one of the clearest in the New Testament to assert that it is God's intention to save all, God's love extends to every person, Jesus' mission is to reconcile the entire world to God.

John's vision is a universal one, it's important for us to hear. We place limits on the size of God's love. We imagine that God is about saving us as individuals. Giving us strength, leading us to reach our hopes and dreams. God certainly is involved in all of these aspects of our lives. But God is bigger than that. God's love extends to all people. He takes away the sin of the world. We imagine that God is about saving our families and our friends. God's plan is wider, it extends to every person on earth.

Once we appreciate the scope of God's love, it has consequences for our lives. God's love is universal, it's an invitation to us to widen our love. When we claim Jesus as the Lamb of God, it's not enough for us to be thankful for the positive lifestyle that we possess. We must also care for those families who struggle to feed their children and cannot find adequate healthcare. We call Jesus the Lamb of God, it's not enough simply to love our neighbor. We must work with people to create a just and legal immigration process by which those from outside of our country can become our new neighbors and share with us in the blessings that this country affords.

God does not place limits on God's love, neither should we. It might be easier simply to care for those who are closest to us, that is not the gospel. Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
